Cancellation Policy

Please allow 24-hours notice whenever possible for cancellations or rescheduling an appointment.

A cancellation fee of the full session price may be charged if 24-hours notice is not given.

Your appointment time is reserved especially for you. Please be respectful of your reserved time by arriving on time for your appointment. If you arrive late to your appointment, the appointment time will be reduced by the amount of time you are late. The session will end at the scheduled end time to respect the time of the next scheduled appointment and the time of the therapist.
